Japan Likely to Settle Shantung and Yap Questions Before Conference; America's Attitude Known.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Reports from Tokyo indicating that the Japanese plan to exclude Shantung from consideration at the Washington conference on disarmament and the Pacific problem, but are willing to have the status of the Island of Yap decided by the conference, have not been confirmed in official dispatches to the State Department. Officials declined to comment on these reports in the absence of verification.

TRI-PLANE NAVY NOW. Bomb Tests Show Needs of War.

Assertions of Conservatives Are Blown Up With Ships That Are Victims.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Treasury of the Navy, the sinking of the German ocean liner Frankfurt by Navy and Army aircraft, using only medium-sized bombs, has clinched the evidence that unarmored ships of all classes, including light cruisers, destroyers, supply ships, repair ships, ammunition ships, etc., are helpless against a determined attack by aircraft.

NEW HOPE FOR BLIND. Serum Reported to Restore Sight When Optic Nerve Is Atrophied.

NEW YORK, July 24.—What may prove to be one of the greatest medical discoveries in humanity will soon be placed before the Academy of Medicine and the American Medical Association. A serum to restore the sight in cases of blindness caused by atrophy of the optic nerve, heretofore regarded as an incurable condition, has been developed by Dr. Erasmus A. Pond of Brooklyn, an eye specialist of unquestioned standing in his profession.

Governor Acts in Mysterious McLennon Case

WINSTON (Ark.) July 24.—Gov. Campbell has instructed the Attorney-General's office to assist in the prosecution of the McLennon murder case, which goes to trial here on July 25. This is one of the most sensational cases in the history of Arkansas, and the Governor's action is a departure from his usual policy of non-interference in criminal cases.

LOOK TO NATIONAL GUARD. Secretary Weeks Issues Orders to Use Every Means to Develop Reserve.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—In conformity with President Harding's interpretation of the Army Reorganization Act of June 4, Secretary of War Weeks has instructed Gen. Pershing, Chief of Staff, to employ all the available resources of the military establishment to organize, train and equip the National Guard and reserve forces into effective units.

DE VALERA NOT LIKELY TO ACCEPT BRITISH TERMS; CAN'T AFFORD TO JEOPARDIZE JOB

BELFAST, July 24.—The Irish appears general in Belfast that Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, will not accept the terms of the British government for a settlement of the Irish question, which fall far short of the republican ideal. It may be assumed that the outstanding feature of the governmental offer is fiscal control, which implies dominion over Ireland outside the six northern counties, and unless special provision is made to the contrary, it is believed likely to prove the strongest lever for forcing Ulster to join with the Southern Parliament.

CITY UNION TO MAKE A DIRECT APPEAL FOR AID IN GENERAL STRIKE PLAN.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Following its decision to appeal to the various individual labor unions, rather than waiting for the formation of a general strike committee, the City Union of San Francisco has decided to make a direct appeal for aid in its general strike plan. The union has been successful in its efforts to secure the support of the various labor organizations in the city.

HURLS BOMBS AT WAR LORDS.
German General Makes Scathing Attack on Superiors.
Ludendorff's Former Chief of Staff Calls Him Liar.
Bernstorff and Falkenhayn Also Accused.
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
BERLIN, July 24.—A rhetorical hand grenade, hurled straight at Ludendorff by his fellow-militarist and one-time intimate associate, Gen. Hoffmann of Breslau-Litovsk fame, has burst in the militarist camp, causing scandalized consternation, its flying fragments striking Hindenburg, Falkenhayn and others.
The sensational disclosure of a spicy private conversation with Gen. Hoffmann is made by a Social Democratic writer named Albert of Dresden, otherwise unknown to fame.
RIGHT-HAND MAN.
Hoffmann was Ludendorff's right-hand man on the eastern front. He was chief of the operations section of Hindenburg's general staff until the Hindenburg-Ludendorff combination displaced Falkenhayn as supreme in command, whereupon Hoffmann became chief of staff to the Bavarian field marshal, Prince Leopold, and as such, virtual commander-in-chief of the entire eastern front, gaining notoriety when he smote his mailed fist on the Breslau-Litovsk conference table and coerced the Bolshevik into signing everything.
Since the armistice Hoffmann's hobby has been fighting the bugaboo of Bolshevism in Germany. He has also democratized himself, attending Social Democratic meetings and participating in discussions with workers. Regarding Hindenburg and Ludendorff's memoirs he is reported to have said to the Social Democratic writer:
"Ludendorff's book is a white-wash work, a defensive book, and therefore stupid, false, and all lies from beginning to end. Wherever he defends himself the book is full of errors. And as for good old Hindenburg it is enough to make even a dog howl. The only one who reports well and has anything to say is Trepow, because he was a real fellow."
Hoffmann said he would not write his own memoirs for the present, because if he did, he would have to let the world know that "Ludendorff was no strategist and no field-marshal" and for the present he did not wish to show Ludendorff up.
"I played host at Breslau-Litovsk," he said, "and directed the preliminary negotiations with the Russians, made difficult by the Bulgarians, who raised their well-known nationalistic demands for Dobruja and Macedonia. Gen. Falkenhayn, the worst criminal of them all, had promised those territories to the Bulgarians if they would come in with Germany, and now the Bulgarians insisted on receiving them. All the others wanted peace without annexations. On this point the negotiations would have been shattered but for diplomatic sharp practice."
"Kushman and Cernin quieted the Bulgarians with the assurance that the formula 'no annexation' would have validity only in the ventuality of a general peace. They lied, as the Foreign Office has consistently lied for the past twenty-five years. They lied, too, and especially Cernin, in connection with the formula about the self-determination of peoples."
Hoffmann is quoted as saying that the publication of his letters to his wife would be unpleasant for many people, Bernstorff among others.
"Bernstorff, before the parliamentary investigation committee in the Reichstag, lied in saying that the submarine war America would not have entered the war. But to my wife in the Adlon, Bernstorff said unequivocally that America would have entered even without the submarine war, in his opinion."
Other sayings attributed to Hoffmann are:
"RESULT OF INCAPACITY."
"The outcome of the first battle of the Marne was the direct result of incapacity in high places. We had ten divisions too many on the left wing and too few on the right. We could certainly have won the battle and the war if we had not fooled around with minor and individual operations here and there without the self-confidence to strike a decisive blow."
"Not even in 1918, after I had sent Ludendorff a million soldiers from the eastern front, who really wanted

FEAR CHARLES SEEKS THRONE.
Austria Guards Frontiers to Prevent Return of ex-Kaiser.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
VIENNA, July 24.—The rumored intention of former Emperor Charles of Austria to make another dash for the throne has caused the authorities to order a vigilant watch along the Danube and on the Swiss frontier, although officials do not appear to be concerned, pointing out that the Swiss authorities are keeping close guard on the former Emperor at his castle in Herenstein, near Lucerne.
To fight, did we dare to strike one decisive blow.
"If, in 1914, we had thrown two more corps into the field, we should soon have been in Warsaw and have put the whole arsenal of Russia at our last. The expenses of the war, the best and ablest officer wasn't Ludendorff, but Conrad von Hotzendorff" (the Austrian chief of staff).
Year's Winning at Monte Carlo Proves Big Sum.
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MONTE CARLO, July 24.—At the annual meeting of the Casino's shareholders recently it was announced that the receipts for the year 1920-21 were $1,000,000,000 francs from roulette and trent et quart, $5,000,000 from baccarat and chemin de fer, and $1,000,000 from entrance fees, the total being $9,000,000,000 francs. This is $1,000,000 more than last year's receipts, which were $8,000,000,000 francs, the profit being $2,500,000,000 francs.
A dividend of 375 francs per share was declared, which, with the 100 francs paid last November, makes a total dividend of 300 francs per share. This is 50 francs more than was paid last year.
It is said that the "tips" contributed by winners at the various tables for the year 1920-21 amounted to $5,000,000 francs. Thus the grand total left by players at the Casino and the Sporting Club works out at $15,500,000 francs.
But that there are chances for somebody is proved by the fact that $100,000 francs one Sunday, on which day the money at the table had to be replenished no fewer than five times.

Germans Ready to Aid Starving Russian People.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BERLIN, July 24.—Continued appeals for help from Russia, where large areas are reported to be suffering from famine and a cholera epidemic, have elicited a strong German sentiment in favor of active participation in relief measures.
Conservative quarters insist, however, that "help shall be for the people, not for Bolshevism."
Late prices for necessities of life are reported in recent advices from Petrograd and Moscow. STATE CONTRIBUTES TO LEGION HOSPITAL.
CHICAGO, July 23.—Legion Woods will spruce up as it were the grounds surrounding Speedway Hospital, and the grove of noble trees will be dedicated by the American Legion November 11, Armistice Day, according to a plan of co-operation between ex-service men and the United States Public Health Service. The latter now has charge of the huge hospital for wounded and disabled veterans, built by Edward Hines in memory of his son, the late Lieut. Edward Hines Jr.
A resolution, adopted at the recent meeting of the State executive committee of the Legion in Springfield, urged that the new institution, the largest of its kind in the country, be named in honor of Mr. Hines's hero son.
The plan for Legion Woods contemplates the donation of five-year-old trees to the hospital grounds by each post of the Legion in Illinois. These trees will be planted at once and named for the posts donating them. The grounds surrounding the hospital are 250 acres in extent, and will be cared for as part of the forest preserve by the Cook County Commissioners.

BEATEN BY MASKED MEN.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BIRMINGHAM (Ala.) July 24.—Two men and a woman were taken from their homes by masked men last night, taken ten miles into the country and severely beaten, according to a report made by one of the victims to the police. According to the police, he said he had been warned to leave the city.
KU KLUX NATIONAL HOME.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
ATLANTA (Ga.) July 24.—The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan will build a national home in Atlanta, Col. W. J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the order, announced yesterday in making it known that a large tract of land in the city had been purchased for the purpose. The "imperial palace" of the Klan will be called, will be used for the Klan's national executive office, Col. Simmons said.

The World Today
By JOHN C. CAMPBELL,
Superintendent of Escrow, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.
It is a well known fact that the condition of a real estate title may change at any moment. For illustration there are at least twenty-five official records of the County and City Governments which contain liens affecting the title to real estate and it is necessary to search all of such records in order to ascertain whether or not there are any liens against the property.
Inasmuch as these liens may attach to property at any time during the business day, it will readily be seen that the condition of the title may change in a moment's time. In fact, the search of these records should cover the period from the time of the last examination of title up to and including the time of recording the documents completing the transfer.
Safety in Escrow Deals.
These facts justify the statement that the utilization of an escrow department for closing a deal is the only safe medium.
The Escrow Department of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank last year handled hundreds of separate transactions or escrows. The property value involved ran into many millions of dollars. The majority of these escrows pertained to the sale, exchange or mortgage of real property. The Escrow Department handled many other transactions, however, involving the sale of personal property, the character of some of which were as follows:
The sale, mortgage and exchange of apartment and hotel leases, including fixtures and furnishings. The sale, mortgage or exchange of the stock, trade and fixtures of different kinds of merchants, such as grocery stores, confectionery stands, pool halls, butcher shops, transfer businesses, restaurants, garages, dry goods stores, motion picture theaters and so on, in which latter transactions the Escrow Department protected the buyer to the extent of the current bills then due and owing by

ENTRIES ALLOWED IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—George R. Wickham, Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office, yesterday allowed the application of John Neff Roppa for second desert land entry for 160 acres of land near Bartow, Cal., subject to the field service approving the application as to water conditions, etc.
Roppa had formerly made a desert land entry but he was forced to abandon the same because of adverse water conditions.
The assistant commissioner also granted extensions of time on desert land entries as follows:
Sophia H. Hunter, on eighty acres of land near Oro Grande, San Bernardino county, extension of time of three years.
August O. Pix, for 240 acres of land in Eureka Valley, east of Warner Springs, San Diego county. Extension of time of three years.
Wickham on July 20 authorized the register and receiver of the Los Angeles Land Office to issue final certificates to Armand Moras for 120 acres of land near Saugus. His certificate has been withheld pending investigation as to oil possibilities, but investigation made negative the possibility of the land being valuable for oil.

SAVE STARVING CHILDREN.

American Relief Body Ready to Aid Russia if Vinton Babcock Age Freed

300 Girls

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The American relief administration has dispatched the following telegram to Maxim Gorky at Petrograd. The relief administration some six months ago proposed to enter upon measures for relief of Russian children subject to the release of American prisoners and various other necessary conditions and, in view of the recent appeals from Russia, formally renewed this offer.

"I have read with great feeling your appeal to Americans for charitable assistance to the starving and sick people of Russia, most particularly the children. To the whole American people the absolute sine qua non of any assistance must be the immediate release of the Americans now held prisoner in Russia. Once this step has been taken the must have the assurance of noninterference of the government with the liberty of all of its members.

On its side, the relief administration is prepared as usual to make a free and frank undertaking, first, that it will within its resources supply all children and invalids alike without regard to race, creed or social status; second, that its representative assistance is in no way to involve any political activities.

AMERICAN relief administration, a purely voluntary association, and an entirely unofficial organization, of which I am chairman, together with other co-operating charitable American organizations supported whose through the generosity of the American people have funds in hand by which assistance for the children and for the sick could be undertaken immediately. This organization has previously, in the last year, indicated its willingness to undertake this service as one of simple humanity disengaged absolutely from any political, social or religious motives.

READY TO START WORK.

"However, for obvious administrative reasons, it is not possible to be compelled to stipulate for certain undertakings. Subject to the acceptance of these undertakings we are prepared to undertake the care of the day caring for 3,000 children in

"I desire to repeat that these conditions are in no sense extraordinary but are entirely within the laid down and readily accepted by the twenty-three other governments in whose territory we have operated."

SANTA MONICA, July 24.—Ford Delmas Barnes, son of the William Barnes, for several years District Attorney for San Francisco was married tonight at Santa Monica to Miss Phyllis Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rus-and different countries, and would be willing to furnish necessary supplies to the Government of Russia as rapidly as organization could be effected. The administrative conditions that we are obliged to make are identically the same as those that have been established in every one of the twenty-three countries where operations have been conducted one time or another in care of upwards of 3,000,000 children.

CONDITIONS SET FORTH.

The conditions are that the Moscow Soviet authorities should give a direct statement to the relief administration representatives in Moscow, to the effect that they will (a) furnish necessary assistance; (b) that American representatives of the relief administration shall be given full liberty to purchase and transport supplies.

(c) that these members shall be allowed to organise the necessary financial committment and local assistance free from governmental interference; (d) that they shall be given free transportation of imported supplies with priority over other goods; (e) that the authorities shall assign necessary buildings and equipment and fuel free of charge; (f) that in addition to the importation of drugs and medicines the children and the sick must be given the same ration of such local supplies as are available; (g) that the relief administration every trace of harshness leaves it; nothing to bite the tongue or parch the mouth; nothing to tire your sight, no fancy package; no conversations; nothing but quality and lots of it. Green right here! The tobacco producing district in the world, you have never tasted a finer flavor. More satisfying tobacco in your pipe than anywhere else grows. It's green right here! No chemicals there! Give you the pure rift and cutting out all middlemen's profit, and giving you the old natural leaf tobacco right from the farms at less than one-fourth the market price.

I have on hand ten thousand pounds of my 1917 crop of tobacco that I mean to sell at half price. I want to get rid of it before it gets too late. I am now 60 years and age my tobacco four years before offering it for sale and I have got to take a heavy loss on the 1917 crop, and I have decided to close out this crop at a price like this. I will give you 10¢ per lb. for the best grade of my 1917 crop of again and take the loss right now and get through with it. Tobacco, like other things has dropped in value since the war. I have been growing tobacco since 1890 and I can tell you this crop of tobacco and wrapped it in 30-pound packages, so if ordered to dispose of it I am going to offer this tobacco 30 pounds for $18.00. That means 60¢ per lb. for the best grade of my 1917 crop. Now I am offering it at half what I have been selling my tobacco for the last three years. That is the most remarkable offer I have ever made. You can't make an offer like this often, and this offer will go like hot cakes on this wonderful price offer.

GARANTEE:

When the tobacco arrives try it five days and if it doesn't please you, if you don't suit your taste, if it doesn't save you money, back it once and every cent of your money will be refunded. If you like it, send me your order today for 30 pounds of my old Kentucky home-grown and aged tobacco. Send me your order today.

LEMONADE KING IN TORRID BELT.

Citrus Shipments to Sweltering East Smash Records.

Nearly Million Boxes from Southland in June.

First Week in July Averages Hundred Cars Daily.

With residents of the Mississippi Valley wallowing in 100-degree weather and Sunday-school picnics flourishing like toadstools after a warm spring rain, Southern California is breaking all records in the distribution of that time-honored and dependable old thirst quencher—lemons.

"Lemon, lemon!" Liked by rich and poor! Even approved by those who can't drink it as strong as two and three-quarters and won't let anybody else do it! The great national hot-weather drink is now having its insuring. During June the Southland shipped more carloads of lemons than in any previous June since the industry was established.

During June the supply distributed by California growers and foreign importers, amounts to $20,000 boxes, of which the Southland furnished $17,000 boxes. During the four years prior to 1921 California sold an average of 145,000 boxes of lemons in June.

The week ending July 3 registered the sale of 175 carloads of California lemons. Last year the sales the same week were 131 cars, and for four years prior to this year the average for the same week was 145 cars. During the first week in July California lemons sales ran nearly 100 carloads a day.

STAR TO ANSWER LOVE CHARGES?

Expect Film Producer's Wife to Spring Sensations.

Stole Husband, Is Accusation of Bay City Woman.

"False," Say Two Hubbies and the Fair Defendant.

The deposition of Mrs. M. D. Horkheimer, wife of the film producer and herself known to the screen as Jackie Saunders, to be taken this week, is expected to bring out a number of startling statements to offset the charges made against her by Mrs. J. Ward Cohen of San Francisco in a deposition made by the latter Friday in connection with her $50,000 heartbalm suit against the film star.

Mrs. Cohen, who is living at the Dard Apartments, and who is also bringing a suit for separate maintenance, says in her complaint that on last June 17 she and a chauffeur and the manager of the Alvarado Apartments entered the apartment of Mrs. Horkheimer in that building at 9 a. m. and found Miss Saunders and Mr. Cohen therein. Miss Saunders, she says, was clad only in a nightgown and a cooking apron.

She was only able to gain admission to the room, she said, after she had called upon the manager for his assistance. Tucked on the outer door of the apartment, she says, was a note reading "Do not disturb before 11 o'clock."

"On entering the room, where I found them very much excited," says Mrs. Cohen, "I told Miss Saunders that she need not be afraid of me as I would not injure her. To this she replied with a snarl that she was not in the least afraid of me."

"I then took Mr. Cohen back to the Alvarado with me. Soon after we got there he fell into a rage and beat me severely, so severely that it became almost impossible for me to continue to nurse our little baby."

"During all the time that he has been lavishing clothes on Miss Saunders, I have been hounded by bill collectors for debts incurred at the time of the baby's birth."

"I have in my possession a letter from Miss Saunders to my husband beginning 'My Own,' and running on in the same gushing strain."

Mrs. Cohen also charges that Miss Saunders and Mr. Cohen frequented together beach resorts near Los Angeles.

Mrs. Horkheimer, her husband and Mr. Cohen, the latter a representative of a San Francisco millinery house, have all issued statements branding Mrs. Cohen's charges as false.

Both the separate maintenance and the heartbalm suits are expected to come up for trial in September.

Asks Heart Balm, Separate Maintenance

Will Interpret Poems of Great Puritan Bard.

Milton's poems, "Allagoo" and "Penseroso," will be illustrated in pageantry at 11:30 p. m. tomorrow on the lawn of the southern branch of the University of California, with the ivy-covered facade of the library building as a background. An actor dressed to represent the great Puritan bard will read the poems to a musical accompaniment, while groups of dancers in pantomime interpret the spirit of the lines. The performance will be a series of pictures, stately or merry, as in the village wedding scene, for which a chorus is to carry an old English wedding ring.

The pageant will be representative of the co-operative effort of students and faculty of the summer session of the university. The songs and instrumental music are under the direction of E. E. Turner, the director of the department of graphic art under the guidance of Prof. F. D. McLaughlin; the students of household art dyed the materials and those in the department of household science have prepared the costumes. There will be folk dances and classic poses, 150 students taking part. There is no admission charge.

SAN FRANCISCO TRIP IS HALTED BY THIEF.

While Mrs. Louise Figueroa of 1019 Ingraham street was sleeping yesterday morning, a thief entered her apartment and stole $75. Mrs. Figueroa stated that she was to join her husband in San Francisco this morning, but that the bandit made the trip impossible until she received more money from Mr. Figueroa.

BISHOP ACQUIRES NEVADA SALOON

Also Buys Billiard Hall and Store, for Churches.

Three Buildings Bought for Small Cash Outlay.

Representative Day's Work in Missionary's Life.

"I have just returned from a trip to the southern part of the State. On this trip I purchased a saloon, a billiard hall and a store."

These three guesses as to the nature of the business in which the most making this report is engaged than learn, no doubt to your surprise, that he is the Rev. George Cochrane Hunting, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Nevada for the Protestant Episcopal Church, reporting the activities in his district for 1921, the centennial year of the missionary society of the church.

What's he going to do with them? A saloon, for instance, is rather a unusual acquisition these days, even on the arid Nevada desert. His report to the missionary society continues:

"The saloon has already been moved bodily ten miles and is being fitted up as a church at Good Springs. The store is torn down by this time, will be shipped 150 miles and be used in the building of a stone church at Caliente. The billiard hall will remain where it is and be remodeled into a church at Death Valley."

The actual purchase price of the three buildings above, was $319.75. The $15.75 was for the billiard hall, and it is twenty by fifty feet.

Which seems to tell the whole story of one day in the intensely human life of these missionaries, who go out to preach the doctrine of religion and civilization.

"Bishop and missionary bishop is great fun," says Bishop Hunting, in conclusion. "I leave this week on my annual missionary trip over the whole State. I will be on the road about seven weeks, visiting many places where no minister ever goes, as well as ranches, prospectors, etc."

ORDERS BETTERMENT OF WATER SERVICE.

RAILROAD COMMISSION TAKES ACTION FOR RELIEF OF EAST BAKERSFIELD.

Announcement was made by the State Railroad Commission yesterday that active measures are being taken by that body to improve water service at East Bakersfield.

Following a survey of the situation by an engineer of the commission, the Bakersfield Water Works, supplying East Bakersfield, has been directed to increase its capacity by the completion at the earliest possible date of a reservoir of 150,000-gallon capacity.

The company had promised the commission to have this additional storage ready by January 1 of this year.

Meanwhile, as a temporary expedient to give sufficient water for domestic purposes, the company is directed to promulgate rules for the use of water for irrigation of lawns and gardens. North of Montgomery street, where the shortage is most acute, irrigation hours are to be from 8 to 11 a. m. and south of Montgomery street from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 10 p. m. The commission asks the consumers to co-operate in this temporary arrangement for the present good until the reservoir is completed.

That the water conditions in East Bakersfield justified the commission's activity was indicated by the receipt, four days after the letter to the company, of a complaint signed by 124 consumers. One man declared it took him ten hours to water his house garden.

TO SHIP HARDWOODS.

Cargoes from Local Operators' Panama Lead to be Brought Here.

Great McCartney, president of the American Panama Development Company of this city, who last week announced a deal whereby that organization purchased an additional 1000 acres of Panama land from ex-President S. V. Obaldia of the Republic of Panama, stated yesterday that the first move in conjunction with the development of the new tract will be the clearing and shipping to Los Angeles of several shiploads of valuable hardwoods. It will be a vital and important move to making Los Angeles an important center in the furniture industry, Mr. McCartney said.

Hundreds of furniture buyers all over the United States will attend the Industrial and Trade Exposition, to be held here under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, August 15 to 18. A valuable exhibit of Panama timber will be one of the novelties of the show.

E. H. Dymeyer, general manager of the local company, will leave Los Angeles for Panama about August 10, to superintend the planting of sugar cane on the new tract, the erection of a large sugar mill and the shipment of the first cargo to Los Angeles.

MINING DECREASE SHOWN. PAUSE IN WORK IN BREA FIELD.

However, Large Increase is Reported in Number of Oil and Gas Wells.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—A preliminary statement of the general results of the 1920 census of mines, quarries and wells of California, covering the year 1920, was issued today by the Bureau of Census, Department of Commerce. It consists of a comparative summary for the years 1919 and 1920, by totals.

The returns were taken for the calendar year ending Dec. 31, 1920, or the business year of the establishment most nearly conforming to that calendar year.

The statistics show decrease in the number of enterprises and in the number of persons engaged in them. These changes are due to large decrease in the number of mines and quarries operated, in contrast to which there was very large increase in the number of wells and in the petroleum and natural-gas industry generally. There are shown for all mining industries, combined, large increases in the amount of capital invested, the principal expenses of operation and the value of products.

The following information is summarized by A. F. Edwards, Vice-President of the Company, from a letter to us:

THE COMPANY

The Detroit United Railway is the largest interurban electric railway property in the United States, operating over 902 miles of track. Nearly 600 miles of this total are interurban lines radiating from the city of Detroit to Toledo (Ohio) and to Flint, Port Huron, Ann Arbor, Pontiac and other important cities in Eastern and Southern Michigan.

During the last ten years the total outstanding bonded debt of the Detroit United Railway has been increased only $1,215,000, while over $11,000,000 from surplus earnings has been invested in new property, equipment, etc. During the period the gross earnings have increased from $10,253,133 in 1911 to $28,986,228 in 1920.

SECURITY

These bonds will be secured by pledge of $4,155,000, the entire amount outstanding, of underlying first mortgage bonds covering 202 miles of interurban track outside the city of Detroit, comprising some of the most important and valuable interurban properties of the system. This mileage is largely on valuable private right of way operating under the jurisdiction of the Michigan Public Utilities Commission with the franchise situation entirely satisfactory. The Value of the property, after depreciation, upon which these bonds will have a first lien, through pledge of collateral, as appraised for the Michigan public utilities commission, is $11,304,485.

Net earnings from the property covered by the lien of the pledged bonds, after taxes, available for interest and depreciation reserves, amounted to $964,146 for the last fiscal year, or over three times annual interest requirements of $320,000 on these $4,000,000 bonds.

SINKING FUNDS

A sinking fund of 5% per annum of the total amount of 20-year bonds issued, payable quarterly, and a sinking fund of 1% per month of the total amount of one-year bonds issued, payable monthly, will be provided, beginning to accrue at once, to purchase bonds if obtainable at not exceeding 107 1/2% and interest for the 20-year bonds and at not exceeding 100 and interest for the one-year bonds. If bonds are not obtainable at these prices, the sinking funds will be applied to the retirement of other indebtedness of company.

EARNINGS

The company reports earnings for the entire system as follows:

Year	Gross Earnings	Net Income	Total Interest	Balance

POST WEDDING PLAYS.

FILMS, BEGINNING AT ALTAR
ARE NOW FASHION.By Grace Kinsley.
Naughty French writers and others have long observed that the most interesting stories of life are those which begin after marriage.

The picture-makers are beginning to believe that, too, apparently. But still they're afraid of a too dramatic analysis of character, a too tense upbuilding on a dramatic basis.

I saw two such pictures yesterday, and both might have been great instead of mediocre, as they were. Both stayed in the safe dramatic shoals, the directors making soundings with the good old story of the drama, rather than plunging into the real depths of life.

Even though there are moments when you'd like to speak Alice Brady, because of a certain half-innocent cock-sureness, still she is a fine actress, and in "Little Italy" by the Hattens, on view at Cune's, she creates the real illusion of a capricious, life-loving young Italian girl, bent on ordering her life as she pleases.

Though "Little Italy" is an attempt to make real drama, it succeeds in being about as red-blooded as a story can be. The trouble is there is not sufficient basis for the feud being continued after the two young people are married. Granted folks do behave in an insane way sometimes, the demands of dramatic art are for sound and believable premises.

Then there is not sufficient use made of the fact that a man really had kidnapped the girl before she married her rival. It came, therefore, as an obvious dramatic device to spin the picture out when the kidnapping guy began, long weeks after the marriage, to gossip about the kidnapping incident. Instead of which a hint of impending trouble might have been added to the suspense. And then the husband, having doubted the faithfulness of his wife, mushily and absurdly accepts the baby as his own.

Of course, it's that baby which fixes everything. All wife and husband accept the situation—and the baby. How many a suffering scenario writer, up a stump as to finishing a story, has been found with child, and all was sweetness and light!

Despite its faults, there's something mighty entertaining about "Little Italy," probably chiefly Alice Brady and Norman Kerry. You'll find yourself watching its unending with unabated interest. The only pity is that being so good, it is not much better.

A "Bill and Bob" reel, with the youngsters trapping a badger, and an entertaining comedy and news reel complete a good program.

KINEMA THEATRE.
Your own little private com words will probably be added to "The Oath" at the Kinema, which is an R. A. Walsh production featuring Miriam Cooper. Here's another fine big superstructure built on sand, but so high it topples at comic and absurd angle, just when it should be most compelling.

R. A. Walsh's "The Oath" is a Jewish girl in love with her gentle husband, but afraid to tell her father about it, and, in her father's hands, she is condemned to death, what sane or even hysterical jealous woman would not be on edge and ready to explain the truth?

But when the father is found dead, and the husband, who was a Jewish girl in love with her gentle husband, but afraid to tell her father about it, and, in her father's hands, she is condemned to death, what sane or even hysterical jealous woman would not be on edge and ready to explain the truth?

Instead Miss Cooper goes around tearing her hair and beating her breast for no reason whatever, except to spin the yarn out to five reels, and at the end she goes and stands on a rock like a bathing beauty, while her father, who let another woman, a friend of her husband's and of hers, go on the stand and testify that she had been with her that night, instead of herself, owning up to that he was with her.

By the way, there's nothing to make you think he did spend the night with his own wife, until she confesses, as she stands around and quarrel during the scene, and at last he seems to be leaving her apartment. This fact, however, instead of heightening the suspense, is merely irritating, because in any event, she might have confessed to the marriage. Miss Cooper does far too much playing to the camera, and seems never to have learned the word restraint.

The result is that she appears to be playing an entirely unsympathetic, peevish, petulant, narrow-minded young woman, possessed of neither sense nor heart. Which might be all very true of some character, but why make that the principal role?

Anna Nilsson, as the woman who goes on the stand and swears that she was the illicit love of the husband, wins far more sympathy. In fact, she seems to be about the only character in the whole play who has any sense at all.

One of those perfectly delightful "Too much" pictures, which put in good humor again, however. There are still the funny old rude driver of the jerk-water trolley, the tall Swede woman, the village gossip and all the rest.

A male trio gives us some very pleasing new songs, but they lose the orchestra beat and bang those drums so hard in that heavy music that the boys' voices when they are to be scolded by dreamy waltzes!
